

Crescents Ballet School

Job Description: Contemporary Dance Teacher

Company: Crescents Ballet School
Location: Worcester and Droitwich
Established: Since 1989
Published: June 2023

Crescents Ballet School is seeking a passionate and experienced Contemporary Dance Teacher to join our team. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in contemporary dance techniques, including Martha Graham, Merce Cunningham, Gaga, and Laban. They will inspire and guide students ranging from age 7 to adults, fostering creativity, technical proficiency, and a love for contemporary dance.

Responsibilities:

- Teach contemporary dance classes to students aged 7 to adults, from beginners to advanced levels.
- Provide guidance and support to GCSE Dance students, helping them develop their skills and understanding of contemporary dance.
- Offer private lessons for competition work, providing personalized instruction and choreography.
- Choreograph routines or pieces for performances and competitions, showcasing the students' talents and growth.
- Develop and implement lesson plans for contemporary dance classes, incorporating the TDSC syllabus as a guide.
- Attend staff meetings to collaborate with other teachers and contribute to the overall development of the dance program.
- Be available to cover other classes in case of staff absence.
- Choreograph routines for each class to participate in the whole school show.
- Volunteer occasionally at social events organised by Crescents Ballet School.

Requirements:

- Minimum of 2 years of dance teaching experience, with a specialization in contemporary dance.
- Hold a valid DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) certificate.
- Possess a First Aid certificate or be willing to work towards obtaining one.
- Knowledge of the TDSC syllabus is desirable but not essential.
- Dance qualifications such as a degree or HND are preferred.
- Display creativity, versatility, and a strong understanding of contemporary dance techniques and styles.
- Ability to offer guidance and support to GCSE Dance students, helping them excel in their studies.
- Knowledge or experience in other dance styles is desirable but not essential.

This is a self-employed position, with competitive compensation based on experience and qualifications. As a contemporary dance teacher at Crescents Ballet School, you will have the opportunity to contribute to the growth and development of students passionate about contemporary dance.

To apply, please submit your resume, a cover letter, a showreel if applicable and any relevant certifications or qualifications to crescentsinfo@mail.com

G1/G2 Sherriff Street, Worcester WR4 9AB

07971 902 952

crescentsinfo@mail.com